亲爱的妈妈,

I love you so so much. Thank you for giving birth to me, raising me, and taking care of me. Thank you for all of the sacrifices you've made so that I may have a good life. Thank you for the education. Thank you for teaching me good values. Thank you for showing me what true love is. 谢谢妈妈

I write this letter to you with a pure heart of love, of gratitude, of deep appreciation. I am who I am today because of you. I would not be where I am today without you. Everything I have, all that I am, is because of your love. Thank you so much for everything. 我非常感谢

You have such a big heart. You care so much for other people. You take care of everyone around you. You are so gifted and are willing to learn. You are strong in your values, according to the bible. You are disciplined and persistent, adhering to your goal. It's incredible how far you've come in your English since St. John's. It's impressive how far you've come with technical computer skills, mostly self taught. It's inspiring to know how many lives you've impacted and the countless more lives you've touched. You are a wonderful person and a positive role model.

I will never forget the times i laid on your lap as you cleaned my ears.
I will never forget when you gave us kids the good food while you ate the leftovers.
I will never forget the sacrifices you made to drive me to school when I could've taken the bus.
I will never forget being nearby and drawing while you taught landscape drawing on Saturdays.
I will never forget when you carried the poster rolls into the flushing house while I was in Albany
I will never forget your stories and lessons shared while growing up.
And so much more.

I love you, mom. I miss you. You mean so much to me. I want only the best for you. I pray that you're healthy, happy, and joyful. We love you. God loves you. God bless you.

我爱你. 我非常想念你, 新儿
